

CWSN & ESOL THINK, LEARN, CREATE @

	<h2>Offline Activities</h2> 	<h2>Online Activities</h2>
GENERAL INFORMATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MATERIAL to supplement your class page • Covid 19 messages from the Government in other languages Online Cambridge Dictionary Link International children's digital library • Use Google translate to change English text into your preferred language
Covid 19 Motor skills Sensory skills	Tools to help you all cope with Covid anxiety Parents can work through these gross motor skills activities. Fun for the family to try together Every day songs and nursery rhymes: Dance and sing along Indoor Activities for hyperactive kids Messy play at home ideas Sensory Processing Information	Feelings game Daniel Tiger's Neighbourhood Learn how to type: Typing Club OR Dance Mat Mindfulness: A relaxing exercise: Breathing exercise
MATHS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family maths i.e setting the table, baking - measuring ingredients and measuring objects around the house, sorting your clothes or lego, reading numbers on letter boxes, make a map of your home, counting forwards and backward by 2s, 5s, 10s, learn how to tell the time • Using mathematical language eg: before, after, one cup, half a pie, half past, quarter to, quarter past, biggest, smallest, tallest, shortest etc. 	Maths dictionary and posters for kids The polygon song The Grapes of Maths read along - a counting activity Give Me Half read along maths lesson Learning our SHAPES Numbers 1 to 10 Adding bigger numbers Multiply and divide Card games: Snap Go Fish Garbage

READING RECOVERY	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Spelling of high-frequency words and hearing and recording sounds in words: Write a short story, 1-2 sentences long, each day. When your child reads to you: If they come to a word they are unable to read, ask them to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> look at the picture for clues attempt to use the first sound of the word say what would make sense in that part of the story read again from the beginning of the sentence Look for familiar parts of words, such as bl or st Shared Reading: Read stories together from books you have at home Writing: Write a story; take a photo of it, record yourself reading it, and upload it to Seesaw. Write your story, cut it up into pieces, and reassemble. Take a photo of it, record yourself reading it if you wish, and upload to Seesaw.	Essential words Lists for every level: Learn to spell these words Days of the week ALPHABET The months of the year in te reo Māori Children reading stories they have written Listen to these stories and read along at the same time Storytime on RNZ (Radio New Zealand) Storyline online Read along short stories Style a SUPER HERO Writing Topics Link
LITERACY SUPPORT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> How to read with your child Pause, Prompt, Praise Listening to stories helps children develop the rhythm of words and sentences. Listening to non-fiction texts helps with understanding features like diagrams, index, glossary, contents page. Listening to fiction texts can help to understand features like problem, solution, characters, setting. Nursery rhymes support the development of timing, rhythm and beat of English. Oral language <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To practise speaking aloud, record yourself talking about a favourite activity, toy, person, plant, game and upload to Seesaw. Below are some activity ideas; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Science experiments Cooking, drawing, dressups, sport Find things around the house that begin with the letters of the alphabet 	Read along Never play music right next to the zoo Read along As fast as words could fly International Children's Digital Library Listen and read along videos Reading, vocab, grammar, listening & reading Stories for emergent readers Hearbuild: Auditory memory demos Sing along to these nursery rhymes Home Learning TV
STEPSWEB	Email lynne@edendale.school.nz or your child's teacher for information about Stepsweb	Stepsweb Stepsweb Parent Information Video
ESOL	Play a word game to practise actions and vocabulary: Here is an example. Make up your own actions game. Create your own newspaper: write news articles about different things for example; my home, my pets; my culture; my garden, my family; my favourite toys; my favourite food; recipes for my friends etc.. draw your own pictures to illustrate your articles. Take a photo and put your newspaper on Seesaw <ul style="list-style-type: none"> make a calendar Learn alphabet letters and sounds in a fun way. ABC alphabet fun Find all of the letter "A" in your house	My Whanau workbook: Learning all about my family Create your own story then read it to your family. DuoLingo Learning English for Kids Starfall Early Learning Link Starfall learn about nouns Children's Books with audio: Storyline online - listen to stories World stories in different languages Audible Stories Link Read along book I Just Forgot The Lorax Goldilocks and the Three Bears